RESOLUTION 25 -

WHEREAS, the City Council and Mayor of the City of Huntsville, Alabama, recognize April as Community Development Month, a celebration of the life-changing work and achievements made through committed public servants and community building efforts; and

WHEREAS, the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program has been in operation since 1974, providing municipal governments with essential resources to address the needs of low- and moderate-income individuals and communities; and

WHEREAS, the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program empowers the State of Alabama and its public officials with crucial, flexible support to address the needs of economically disadvantaged residents throughout the City. This funding has supported sewer, water, and street improvement projects, economic development initiatives, and other public improvement efforts; and

WHEREAS, the Huntsville City Council and the entire City government recognize the essential value of the Community Development Block Grant program and the vital projects supported by its funding; and

WHEREAS, Community Development Month draws attention to the good work that the CDBG accomplishes throughout the year, including the Home Rehabilitation Program, public facility improvements, economic development, and an array of social services; and

WHEREAS, City of Huntsville and community leaders come together to provide meaningful change and will continue to do so; and

WHEREAS, Council is pleased to recognize the outstanding dedication and hard work of City employees who go above and beyond every single day to support citizens and make a lasting impact on the community. Today, Council is proud to honor the exceptional individuals whose contributions stand out: Sharon Webster, Rodney McCallie, Rob Peavy, James Adkins, Johnny Horner, Rec Mosley, and Scott Stevens. Their unwavering commitment helps drive the success of the City, and Council is grateful for their tireless efforts.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the City Council and Mayor of the City of Huntsville, Alabama, honor the entire Community Development team throughout the month of April and recognize the profound impact they make through their unwavering dedication and tireless service to our community.
