

Resolution 25-

WHEREAS, the City Council and Mayor of the City of Huntsville, Alabama, are deeply saddened by the passing of Mr. Tom McAdams and wish to honor his life while celebrating his many achievements; and

WHEREAS, Tom was born on September 30, 1948, in Salina, Kansas, to James (Jim) and Mary Wilmore McAdams. He spent his early childhood in Cheyenne, Wyoming, before settling in Huntsville, Alabama, a place he cherished and was proud to call home; and

WHEREAS, Tom had a distinguished career marked by numerous awards and achievements. He began his professional journey at Lockheed Martin before transitioning to a role as a civil servant, where he supported the Army as a Computer Scientist. In his later years, he continued to professionally contribute on a global scale, serving as the Software Engineering Director for NATO; and

WHEREAS, he was a valued member of the community, always looking for ways to provide assistance. A dedicated advocate and a compassionate neighbor, he was consistently willing to lend a helping hand, making a lasting impact on those around him; and

WHEREAS, he was well known for his "Mr. Fix-It" abilities, always ready to tackle any problem and lend his skills to those in need. Whether repairing something around the house or helping a friend, Tom took pride in finding solutions and making things work; and

WHEREAS, Tom's greatest joy came from being with family and friends. He loved sharing stories about his daughter, sons, and grandchildren, always beaming with pride over their accomplishments. He cherished every visit to his son and family in Utah, where they created memories that meant the world to him; and

WHEREAS, he also truly looked forward to his regular breakfast outings with friends, where he would brighten the room with his stories and lively conversation. His warmth, generosity, humor, and incredible storytelling made every moment memorable. He will be deeply missed by everyone fortunate enough to know him.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the City Council and Mayor of the City of Huntsville, Alabama, join his family in mourning the loss of Mr. Tom McAdams, a cherished member of the community, and we wish to honor the meaningful impact he leaves behind.
