

RESOLUTION 24 -

WHEREAS, music and other forms of the live performing arts enrich our lives; and

WHEREAS September is “Music Month” in the City of Huntsville, celebrating our local music ecosystem and delivering numerous concerts throughout the City; and

WHEREAS, the music industry contributes significantly to our local, state, and national economy; and

WHEREAS, the industry relies heavily on the labor of a skilled and dedicated workforce including stagehands, riggers, loaders, lighting specialists, wardrobe, and other behind the scenes workers at entertainment venues; and

WHEREAS, investment in developing that workforce is critical to Huntsville’s efforts pursuing the steady growth in our local music and performing arts economy; and

WHEREAS, we have much to celebrate in our local music scene; and

WHEREAS, we want to celebrate the workers who make it happen because, without them, the show literally does not go on.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED be it resolved that the Mayor and City Council of Huntsville, Alabama recognize and celebrate the daily work of all those who make possible the performance of the arts throughout our community.
