RESOLUTION NO. 26 –

WHEREAS, the City Council and the Mayor of Huntsville, Alabama, proudly recognize G’s Country Kitchen, a beloved family owned and operated restaurant that has faithfully served the community for thirty years; and

WHEREAS, under the exceptional leadership of owners Maurice and Greta Russell, G’s Country Kitchen has become a true cornerstone of hospitality, known throughout Huntsville for its welcoming atmosphere, quality food, and steadfast commitment to excellence; and

WHEREAS, as a family operated establishment, G’s Country Kitchen represents the very best of small business entrepreneurship, reflecting the values of hard work, perseverance, and a lasting family legacy; and

WHEREAS, for three decades, G’s Country Kitchen has provided more than meals, offering a place of fellowship, connection, and community engagement. This has become a place where residents from all walks of life gather to build strong connections, exchange ideas, discuss business, and enjoy genuine camaraderie; and

WHEREAS, the Russells’ dedication to service extends well beyond their restaurant, contributing to the economic strength and cultural richness of the City of Huntsville; and

WHEREAS, the celebration of thirty years in business is a significant milestone that reflects an enduring commitment to excellence and the continued support and loyalty of the Huntsville community.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the City Council and the Mayor of Huntsville, Alabama, do hereby recognize and congratulate G’s Country Kitchen on its thirtieth anniversary, commend Maurice and Greta Russell for their leadership and contributions to the community, express sincere appreciation for their years of service, and extend best wishes for continued success in the years ahead.
